

Insurance Services

We optimise performance at every stage of the insurance process

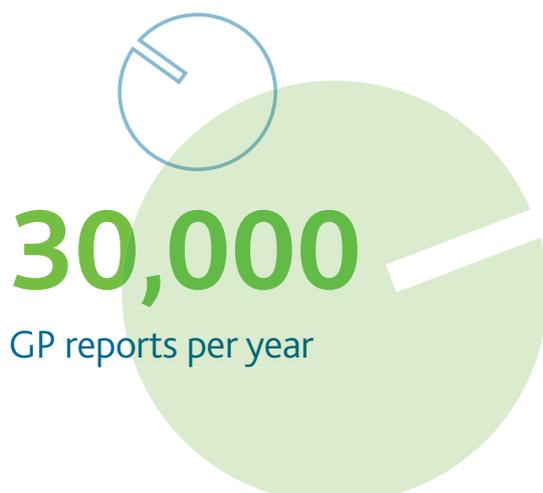

Optimising performance

MDG has been working with the insurance sector since 1994 to increase efficiency, cut costs and improve end-to-end process times. By delegating elements of the insurance process to us, such as the gathering of medical data, underwriting of risk, claims management and rehabilitation, our clients are free to focus their internal resources more effectively.

Operating primarily in the life, income protection, disability and critical illness sectors in the UK and Ireland, we optimise performance at every stage of the insurance process. Our breadth of services, proprietary systems and data-mining techniques afford us an unparalleled offering to the market.
